Pearl of the South and Morocco’s first tourist destination, Marrakesh is a fascinating city with a unique charm and an exceptionally pleasant weather, attracting visitors from across the globe. It is steeped in the history and spirit of the deep, mysterious South, where every corner, street and alleyway has a story to tell.
FRIDAY APRIL 5TH
HALF DAY VISIT OF MARRAKESH
SECRET GARDENS
Visit to the Majorelle Garden

The delightful Majorelle Garden was created in the 1920s by French artist Jacques Majorelle. Part of the Yves Saint Laurent House, the garden includes bougainvillea, coconut palms, banana trees, palm trees and other exotic plants.
Visit to Menara Gardens

If it’s a bit of peace and quiet you’re after, then the Menara Gardens is just what you’re looking for. The Almohads built a graceful summer pavilion there in the 14th century, its reflection shimmering on the waters of an artificial lake, surrounded by immense olive tree groves. At nightfall, the site turns into a wonderland, aglow with every shade of gold. The lake is a water reservoir, supplied by a 700-year-old hydraulic system that channels water along a 30-kilometer pipe route from the mountains to irrigate the olive tree groves.
DJEMAA EL FNA SQUARE

- Visit to Djemaa El Fna Square
One of the main attractions of Marrakesh, this traditional meeting place for peasants and merchants is the heart of Marrakesh. In the morning, this vast square, bordered by shops and workshops, is crowded with fruit and spice sellers, basket sellers, ironmongers and barbers. In the afternoon and evening hours the musicians, story-tellers, snake charmers, soothsayer ladies and entertainers with performing monkeys fill the square, turning it into a live performance theater.
